

What: MCST (Music Combating Sex Trafficking)

When: June 13, 2009 11 am - 6 pm

Where: Bachelor Creek Church of Christ on State Road 15

Come join us for an all day music festival to raise awareness and funds to help combat sex trafficking. Funds raised will go to Rapha House and the Not for Sale campaign. Both organizations work to raise awareness and prevent sex trafficking around the world.

For just $5 come listen to the bands:

- Fifth and Majesty
- Common Catastrophe
- Two Years Today
- Cyberpunch
- Driscoll Boys
- Mike McGriff
- and many more...

We will also be showing the movie Baht, representatives from RAPHA House and Not For Sale will speak and informational booths will be set up. There will also be plenty of kids' games and food. This is a great event for the whole family!
